"Living with Delight"

DELIGHT!

Discipleship as the Adventure of Loving and Being Loved

8

Heavenly Father, thank you for making your Word vulnerable enough to seem foolish to some, so that your Word can be understandable enough for me to trust. Let the surpassingly great power of your Word be a light shining in my darkness.

Jesus, thank you for making yourself vulnerable to hunger and exhaustion, to mocking and death, so that you can be near me in my need and with me in my suffering. Let the surpassingly great power of your presence bring renewal and strength to my journey of faith.

Come, Holy Spirit, and use me to reflect the light of my crucified and risen Savior. Don't give me a safe life; instead, give me a life filled with love, belonging, and joy.

Work in my ordinary life, so that the people you have placed around me have access to your surpassingly great power in their ordinary lives.

Give me the delight of carrying your treasure in a fragile jar of common clay. Amen.
